

Whether you're looking for your first home, "step-up" home, vacation property, or investment-grade real estate, Curtis Lawson's team at CityLife Brokers is here to assist you. We live and work in the Medical Center area, and know all the current trends & hot spots. Our experience in the Houston real estate and construction fields can guide you through the potential pitfalls of buying property in the Houston market.

If you are looking for a custom-built home from $250,000-$2,000,000 in the Medical Center area, let us refer you to a builder in our extensive network. If you are buying a "fixer-upper", we have the area's best remodelers as our clients as well!
