

Rand Mintzer is a criminal attorney based in Houston who has been practicing law in Harris and the surrounding counties for almost 28 years. The greater majority of his practice is criminal defense. In addition, he accepts a small number of select personal injury cases. His work with personal injury law firm as a young lawyer helped him build a strong foundation of medical knowledge. A background in medical expertise affords Attorney Rand Mintzer with a significant advantage in handling criminal cases as well. As an avid long distance runner for over 30 years he has exceptional principles of strength and endurance ensuring every case whether it's a DWI, assault or even murder is seen through to the end.
