Home Tab in Outlook - Rules

- Setup rules.
  - Forward emails to a folder. You can forward based on a keyword in the subject line or body of text, sender name, sender.

- Home tab ➔ Rules ➔ Create Rule ➔ Advanced options ➔ Select conditions (what are you trying to flag? A person? A keyword?) ➔ Next (Select an action like, “move to a specific folder”, “redirect to a specific group”, “flag the message”, “display a desktop alert”
Home Tab in Outlook - Categorize

- Categorize your important emails with a color code.
- Categorize ➔ All Categories ➔ Name your category and add a color
Send/Receive Tab

- Show Progress: Shows you where your emails are in the sending process.
- Cancel All: This will allow you to cancel a message that is in the process of sending.
Folder - Favorites

- Add to Favorites: Add a folder to your favorites to see it at the top of your mailbox.
Message Preview: Allows you to select how many lines of the message show in the main message pane.

Layout section allows you to collapse or expand your folder, reading, and to-do panes.

Close All Items – this will close all of your open windows in Outlook, except your main mailbox.
Search Outlook

- This pops up when you click in the search bar.
- Use operators like AND, OR, NOT
- Use your search tab
  - From allows you to search emails by sender
  - Search your categories
  - Subject: search the subject lines
  - Search Tools: Advanced search
The search box is at the top of your Outlook 365.

Click on the little drop-down arrow to find advanced search options.
Home tab – Conditional Formatting

- Quickly highlight all duplicate or unique values
  - For the entire spreadsheet or 1 or more columns/rows
- Choose your spreadsheet or column(s)
- Home tab > Conditional formatting > Highlight cells rules > Duplicate values > choose duplicate or unique > choose the formatting > click OK
Home tab – Find & Select

- Find all blanks
  - For the entire spreadsheet or 1 or more cells
- Choose your spreadsheet or column(s)
- Home tab > Find > Go to special > Choose blanks > click OK
- Bonus: Fill those blanks by entering your number (such as 0) and pressing CTRL+Enter
Filter the entire spreadsheet or 1 or more columns
- Select your spreadsheet or column(s)
- Data tab > Filter
- Now you can apply text filters, search for text in columns, filter on color (based on conditional formatting)
Data tab – Freeze or split panes

- Freeze top row or first column
  - For the entire spreadsheet or 1 or more columns
  - View tab > Freeze panes > choose either

- Split
  - For the entire spreadsheet
  - View tab > Split > now adjust where the spreadsheet is split
