DESCRIPTION: Redd School is a small private school offering a distinctive education to children in Preschool through Grade 8. Redd School was established in 1969 and has enjoyed a stellar reputation as a school that nurtures the whole child, academically, socially and psychologically. The children are treated as individuals and taught to be their best selves in all areas. Children are challenged to be lifelong learners, creative, problem solvers and high level thinkers. An education at Redd School is a gift that lasts a lifetime.

Redd School is accredited by The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and enjoys the highest rankings by the association.
